“Dino what?” No doubt that’s an old photo. That distinctive coat of hair is such a part of him as is his face and his abs. And the question is in a way moot because he is not only a star but also a legend, the most famous player in NHL History. But he’s hardly the only star hockey player of today. Toronto Maple Leaf and the NHL Legend, Nicklas Lidstrom, and his partner on the Stanley Cup, fellow Red Wings’ legend, Chris Chelios, would both agree that the two top defencemen in the league is none other than Michael Grabner. He’s the player that although they were never buddies in the NHL, as they are now, they say had the best
